10:00 P.M. Feature Film Presentation (Castilian Room)
           "To Catch a Thief" Directed by Alfred Hitchcock in 1955, this suspense film features Cary Grant at his charming, sophisticated best in a comedy-adventure. Retired jewel thief, Grant, is suspected of committing new thefts when an imposter copies his methods along the glamorous French Rivera. As he tries to catch the real burglar, while fending off police pursuit, he falls in love with ice-cold Grace Kelly who is accompanied by her diamond-encrusted mother.
