Judge Miner To Address N.Y. Law Graduation

U.S. District Judge Roger Miner, of the Northern District of New York, will address eighty-two graduates of the New York Law School's mid-year graduating Class of 1985 at 2 P.M. Sunday in the Froessell Library at the school, 57 Worth Street.

In addition to Judge Miner, a 1986 alumnus of the school, a student in the graduating class, Lionel Hurst, will speak.
